All dates are plus or minus 24 hours. Obviously, all this has yet to be proven out in real time. I am not a prophet. This is not 'thus saith the Lord'. This is my best effort to lay out what I have discovered as a result of my personal studies.)

November 27, 2024

Hanukkah eve. End of 1335 days since the Abomination. Beginning of the reign of Christ.

The odds of so many events landing on actual feast days or significant 'occult' days, is astronomical, especially considering the fact that the nature of the event coincides with the significance of the 'holy day'. (For example: the bottomless pit is opened on October 31, 2020, Halloween night!) The fact that most events land on significant days cannot be sheer coincidence, but evidence of a Divine plan unfolding before our eyes.

“Negotiable Dates”

The war in Israel, the rebuilding of the Temple, the resurrection of the dead and the 1st resurrection and rapture of the priesthood of believers is 'negotiable' and the dates for these events are not 'fixed'; that is, these events do not have 'day counts' associated with them, but they all must take place during the first half of the 7 years. These events could have taken place in 2018 or 2019, after the Revelation 12 Sign appeared, but before the fall of 2020. Because these events have not happened as of this writing, the year 2020 is the last possible year for the rapture and the rest of these events to take place.

When the 'Mighty Angel' of Revelation 10 declares “there will be no more delay”, the change/rapture/resurrection will finally take place. According to the timeline presented in Revelation 12, the (1st) rapture must happen AFTER the Revelation 12 Sign but BEFORE the midpoint of the 7 years, and in conjunction with a war in Israel AND an 'alien' invasion! Some events in Revelation take place on 'non-negotiable' dates: the beginning of the 7 years (Revelation 12 Sign/Feast of Trumpets, 2017), the ministry of the Two Witnesses (10/17/17 to 3/30/21), the day of the 'abomination of desolation' (4/3/21), the second coming of Christ (9/14/24), etc. All these have definite starting and ending dates. (Dates are reckoned from the Feast of Trumpets, 9/21/17.)

How I arrived at these dates

1. In 2017, Israel, the 'fig tree' nation celebrated 70 years since receiving statehood by a UN mandate in November of 1947. Jesus said that the generation that sees the 'fig tree budding' (Israel regathered) would also see the return of Christ, including the apocalyptic events of the 7 years preceding His return. (1 generation=70-80 years, Psalm 90:10) If the 'last days' began in 2017, then we need to add the 80 year upper limit set by Psalm 90:10 for an average 'generation' to the year 1947, which will take us to 2027. Subtracting 7 years ('tribulation') from 2027, we arrive at 2020 being the last possible date for the 7 years to begin. The beginning of the 7 years therefore must begin some time between 2017 and 2020.
2. A series of astronomical events directed our attention both to Israel, and to the starry heavens. These events included a 'blood moon' tetrad taking place on Jewish Feast days; a reoccurrence of the 'Star of Bethlehem'; a total solar eclipse over the United States (with another scheduled to occur 7 years later in 2024); and the 'Great Sign' of Revelation 12 on September 23, 2017.
3. If the years 2017-2024 provide us with the correct 7 year timeframe, then the Day of Atonement in 2024 would be the day of the Second Coming of Christ to earth. Using this date as the 'end point'—the Day of Atonement, September 14, 2024—we then subtract 1260 days from the Day of Atonement in 2024 to arrive at the midpoint. Subtracting another 1290 days from the midpoint takes us to the Feast of Trumpets in 2017. The Feast of Trumpets in 2017 is exactly 2550 days before the Day of Atonement, 2024. (Daniel 12:11 tells us there will be 1290 days before the midpoint/abomination.) I checked all other day counts for the 'Trumpets to Atonement' timespan, through the year 2028. No other timeframe except for 2017-2024 'worked', with there being exactly 2550 days from Trumpets to Atonement, staying within the 80 year upper limit of a generation.
4. Many were expecting the rapture to take place in 2017 (myself included) and when the Revelation 12 Sign came and went and we were all still 'here', I entertained the idea that maybe my understanding of the timing of the rapture, and the nature of the 7 year 'tribulation' was flawed, not what the Sign itself was telling us.
5. I also realized that the book of Revelation probably contained the keys to the chronology of the end times. Though many dedicated and earnest Bible teachers have expounded profusely on the various aspects of eschatology, I realized that they, and most 'watchman', were using end time passages from the gospels, Daniel and Paul's writings, even extra-biblical books; to try to determine the date of the rapture and other end time events. Rather than being used as the primary 'source' material, the book of Revelation was taught as an 'aside', or as a 'supporting' book to back-up timelines which had already been pre-determined from the gospels or the Pauline epistles. I decided that Revelation was the 'elephant in the living room'—the book that people kept stepping around—so I decided, to apply myself to understanding the book of Revelation.
6. I deliberately chose to set aside what other people taught about the book, and what I had learned about end times in general. I decided to 'fact check' what I thought I already knew, and I was open to considering an alternative view should my first understanding prove faulty.
7. Crucial to my understanding was the idea that Revelation is not a chronological narrative, but a series of visions, with the same characters appearing over and over again within the various visions. Rather than the dramatic events of the Seals, Trumpets or Bowls 'telling' the story, I discovered that the characters in the visions were telling the end time story; that the narrative is actually about people, not the catastrophic events taking place. Once I realized that the characters were the focal point, instead of the various 'judgments', I decided to follow the narrative they were telling, and then the events of Revelation—and the order in which they occurred—became understandable.

8. In addition, I discovered that each vision had its own timeline and the events of the visions often layered over one another. Most of the visions depicted events during the first half of the 7 years, and many of the visions 'ended' at the Second Coming of Christ, or at the wrath of God.
9. The story is understood by 'decoding' the symbols and imagery. Though the characters are depicted symbolically, they represent real people and real events that will take place sometime in the future.
10. Revelation is its 'own thing', and it's important to interpret Revelation 'using Revelation', as most of the symbols found in Revelation are explained somewhere else in the book (unless the symbols are commonly understood by those literate in the Bible) or Revelation will direct us to another passage of scripture.
11. Understanding the visions in the context of Old Testament references that are clearly alluded to in Revelation, was also necessary to get a complete picture of what would be taking place; to 'whom' and 'when'.
12. The 'day counts' and other time references are actual days: 1,260 days, 10 days, 42 months, 'time, time and half a time', 5 months, one hour, etc. They are NOT symbolic.
13. Revelation was written to the Lord's 'servants' who would be living through the events depicted, so that they would KNOW what was about to happen. Once the events begin to take place, they will happen in quick succession. Knowing what will take place in advance will help them not be taken by surprise when the events actually begin to unfold.
14. 'His servants' are believers, who walk by faith and have the Holy Spirit. They are encouraged to be 'over-comers' and persevere — whether through martyrdom or until Christ comes for them and takes them in a rapture event.
15. For all intents and purposes (and contrary to popular opinion), there is no 'church history' in Revelation and the letters to the 7 churches are letters to the people who will come to Christ once the (1st) rapture of the 'child'/24 Elders has taken place, specifically the 144,000 of Israel.
16. There are clues in Revelation that help us place events in a timeline with many events taking place very close to the midpoint, which is when the 'Woman flees' and the Beast from the Sea begins to reign for 42 months. The midpoint/3.5 year mark is also referred to as the Abomination of Desolation in Matthew, and Daniel; and as the day when 'the man of sin takes his seat in the temple of God' in 2 Thessalonians 2:2.
17. An understanding of the 7 Feasts of the Lord is vital. MANY of the crucial events depicted in the book of Revelation actually take place on one of the Feasts of the Lord!
18. I had to 'unlearn' a lot of stuff....

'End Time' Timeline Factors to Consider :

1. There are a number of 'day counts', all of which must be fulfilled during the last 7 years.
2. A 'day' means a 24 hour period of time, not a 'day-for-year' equivalent.
3. There are a number of feast days ("The Feasts of the Lord") which must also be fulfilled.
4. We can expect multiple fulfillments of feast days.
5. Every day count must, in some way, relate to the verse(s) in which the day count appears.
6. The day counts also must to relate to other day counts on the timeline in a meaningful way.
7. Feast days can have both a 'type' and 'anti-type'; i.e.: both the Beast and Christ may 'fulfill' the same feast day.
8. We can expect to see Satanic 'holy days' (Halloween, vernal equinox) to have significant events associated with them.

The day counts are as follows:

Verse	Number of days	Event
Daniel 8:14, 26	2,300 'evenings and mornings' or 1,150 days	-the temple will be cleansed
Daniel 12:7	'time, times and half a time' or 3.5 years	-the 'shattering of the holy people (Israel) ends'
Daniel 12:11	1,290 days	-elapsed time from when the 'continual' (1 long day?) is taken away and the Abomination of desolation takes place
Daniel 12:11	1,335 days	-elapsed time from the Abomination of desolation until a 'blessed day'
Revelation 2:10	10 days	-duration of the persecution of believers
Revelation 9:5	5 months (150 days)	-duration of time that people are stung by the 'locust army'
Revelation 11:2	42 months (3.5 years)	-the 'holy city' is trampled
Revelation 11:3	1,260 days	-ministry of the 2 Witnesses
Revelation 11:9	3.5 days	-duration of time that the 2 Witnesses lie 'unburied'
Revelation 12:6	1260 days	-the duration of time the Woman flees, is 'nourished'
Revelation 12:14	'time, times and half a time'	-Woman is 'nourished' in the wilderness
Revelation 13:5	42 months	-reign of the Beast
Ezekiel 39:11-14	7 months	-cleansing the land (after the war of Gog/Magog)

Timelines

Due to the fact that so many events will be taking place concurrently, were I to place all the events on one timeline, no one would be able to decipher exactly what was happening to whom, or when! To simplify things, I've made a timeline for each of the characters that appear in the book of Revelation: the Child/24 Elders, the 144K, Over-coming saints, and so on. If two or more characters appear together in the story in a significant way, I have combined the timelines belonging to the characters into a single timeline.

The “Child/24 Elders Timeline

First Half of the Seven years: 2017-2021
(Rapture in 2020)

*Passover commemorates the events in which God chose Israel as his treasured people, His ‘priestly nation’. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the idea that God chooses the whole world, working through Israel to reach the nations. Thus Tabernacles is about the whole world, and not just Israel, and this is reflected in the sacrifices offered during the Feast, which include 70 bulls, sacrificed throughout the seven days, representing the seventy nations of the world. (Numbers 29:12-35) The whole world will celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles during the Millennium (Zechariah 14:16).

Explanation of the Timeline for the 'Child'/24 Elders

Scriptural Considerations: Revelation 12:3-5; Revelation 5:6-8; 2 Kings 2

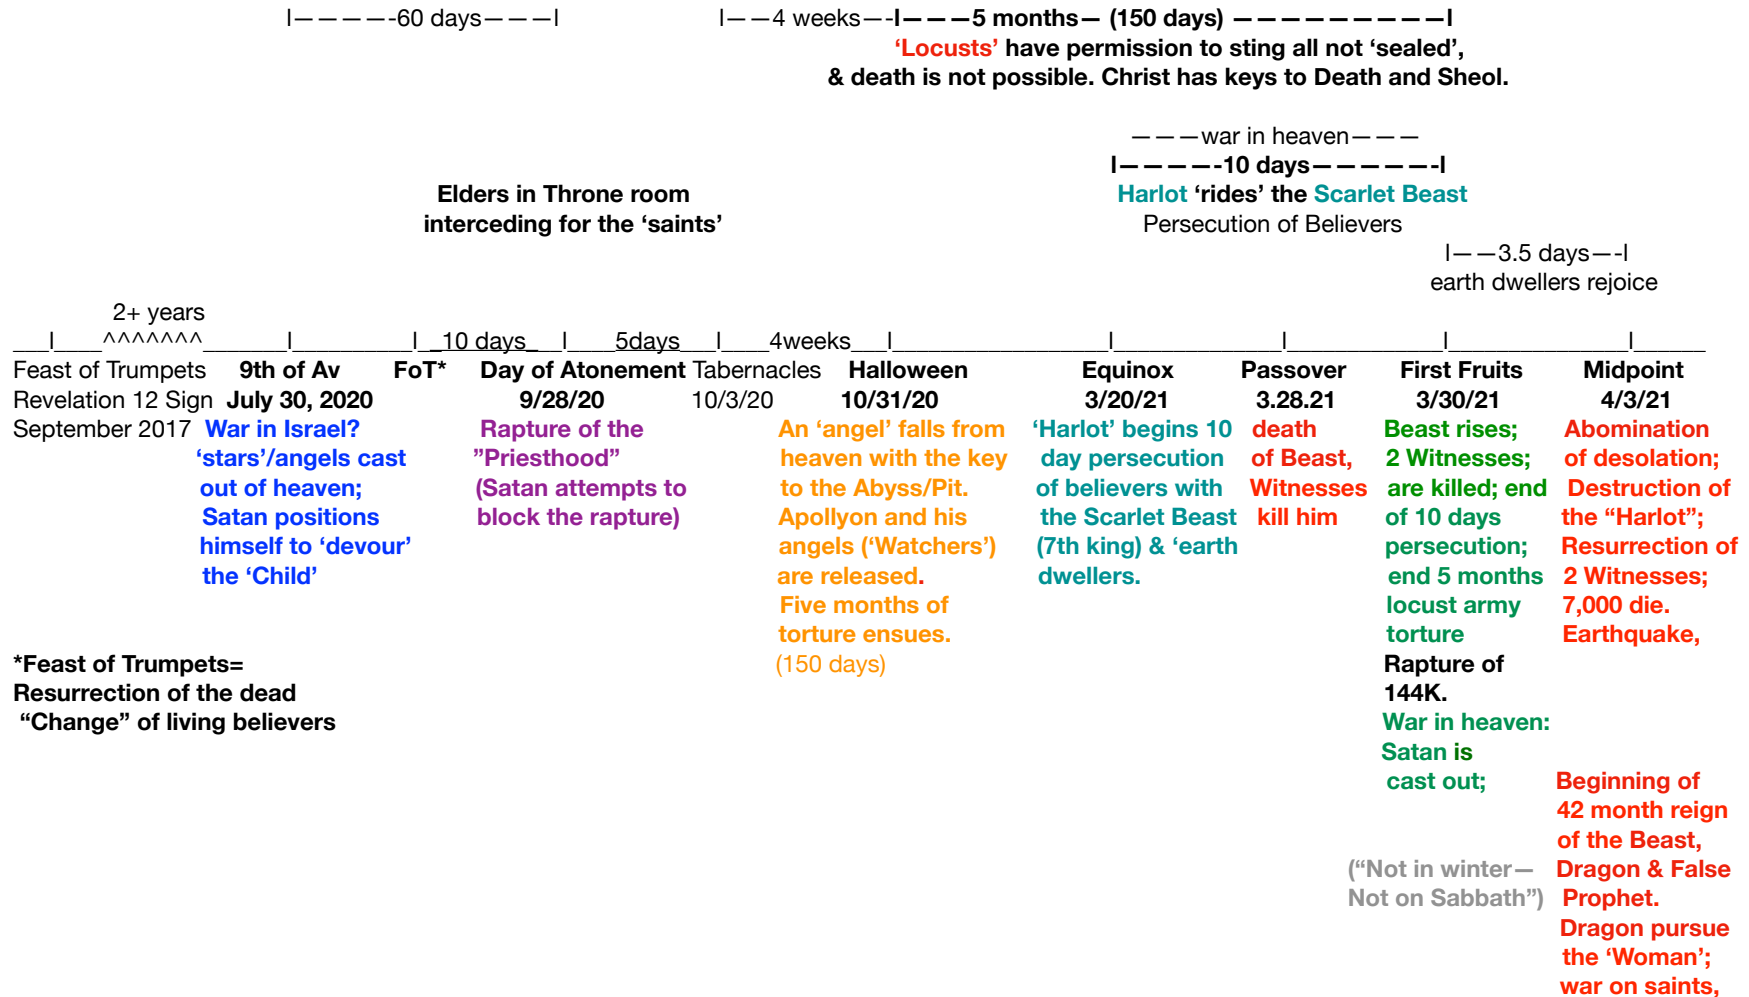

1. The 'child' (Revelation 12:4, 5b) is delivered after the 'travail' of the 'woman' (Revelation 1:2). The 'child' symbolically represents present day believers. The 'woman' is Israel, from whom came the Messiah (the Messiah is also known as the 'Man-child'). The woman is described as being in 'travail'. In the Old Testament, the 'travail' of childbirth is often used as a metaphor for war or conflict; when a nation is overtaken by an invading force, or any other grievous calamity, plague or disaster. (Jeremiah 30:6, Psalm 48:6) We can assume a war or other conflict in Israel shortly before believers are 'born' and 'caught up'.
2. The '9th of Av' is associated with the destruction of both the first and second Jewish temples, the expulsion of Jews from various countries, and the day when the Israelites were consigned to wander for 40 years in the wilderness due to unbelief. This is a day of mourning for Jews and a likely day for the 'woman'/Israel to go into 'travail'/war.
3. The 'stars' being cast from heaven indicates that Satan will install some of his angelic forces here on earth. These 'stars' will possibly be presented as 'aliens' from another planet or another dimension. 'Disclosure' will take place before the rapture of the child.
4. The resurrection of the dead and the 'change of the living may take place on the Feast of Trumpets (the 'birth' of the 'child'). The 'child' is then 'caught up' ('raptured') to God and to His throne (room) after a short period of persecution by Satan (the Dragon who seeks to 'devour' the child). The actual day of the rapture will be on the Day of Atonement, 9/28/20.
5. The 24 Elders are seen in heaven's throne room, around the throne of God and in the presence of the 4 Living Creatures. The 24 Elders (who are pictured worshipping before the throne in Revelation 4) represent the resurrected saints, who will receive their glorified bodies in heaven. The 24 Elders in Revelation 5—those who are described as singing a 'new song'—represent the glorified and raptured 'child' of Revelation 12:5. The number '24' symbolically represents the 24 divisions of priests who ministered in Solomon's temple. When David set up the administration for the future temple, he established 24 'courses' or 'divisions' of the priesthood. This idea of a 'rotation' of groups of raptured saints entering the Heavenly Holy of Holies to serve God as priests, is embedded in the number '24'. (See 1 Chronicles, chapters 23-27.)
6. The Lamb comes from the midst of the Elders to receive the scroll. The Elders worship and act as priests by offering 'golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints' on earth. (Revelation 5:6-10) Christ's unity with believers is pictured as Christ 'in the midst' of His people. He is 'in the midst' of the 24 Elders. In Revelation chapter 1, He is "One like a Son of Man" who walks in the midst of the 7 golden lamp stands. He intends for us to rule and reign with Him, and to be joint heirs with Him. Just as we have been qualified to rule as kings, we are also qualified to act on His behalf as priests before God. Once the Lamb has taken the scroll, He will begin to exercise His right to rule. Someone must take His place before the altar of incense, offering prayers on behalf of the saints on earth. That role will be ours, as priests and kings. (Revelation 1:6) It's conceivable that Christ would not be able to rule as King, without the first division of the priesthood being present in heaven to take His place at the altar. This may be why Satan casts a third of the 'stars'/angels to earth, and positions himself to 'devour' the child as soon as it is born, in order to prevent the rapture of the child. (Revelation 12:4) If believers don't arrive safely in the throne room, Satan would be able to maintain the 'status quo', and the Second Coming of Christ would conceivably be rendered impossible.

7. It's important to understand that the 'Man-child' represents Jesus. The 'child' represents present day believers on earth. The Man-child—Jesus—is the One who will “rule all nations with a rod of iron”. He was NOT ‘caught up’—forcibly brought to God after His resurrection, but gently ascended into a cloud from the Mount of Olives almost 2000 years ago. Believers, on the other hand, WILL be forcefully taken from the earth, away from the clutches of the Dragon and his angels. The ‘Man-child’ rules; the ‘child’ is ‘caught up’.
8. The rapture of the ‘child’ is forceful. The Greek word ‘harpazo’, which is translated as ‘caught up’ in Revelation 12:5, implies a forceful rescue or removal. There is no mention of clouds or trumpets in this rapture passage. Revelation 12 is also devoid of any kind of ‘Jewish wedding’ imagery associated with the rapture.
9. The story of Elijah’s translation into heaven in a fiery chariot, is the Old Testament type of the ‘catching away’. Elijah’s servant, Elisha, who watched Elijah depart, received a double portion of Elijah’s spirit once Elijah was taken into heaven. When the church leaves, another group of ‘witnesses’ will take its place, that being the 144K of Israel—a symbolic 12,000 from each of the 12 tribes of Israel. Elisha received assurance that the ‘double portion’, which was reserved for the first born, would be his if he SAW Elijah taken into heaven. Elijah, the sons of the prophets and Elisha all knew the day that Elijah was going to be taken into heaven.
10. The rapture of present day believers will also take place on a known date. There will be a secret rapture, the rapture where “no man knows the day or hour”, but that rapture belongs to believers who will endure the reign of the Beast, taking place towards the END of the 7 years, in conjunction with the Day of the Lord. In the secret rapture, the Over-coming believers will be taken into heaven before the wrath of God is poured out on the Beast kingdom. The rapture of the present day church will likely take place on the Day of Atonement, September 28, 2020. If Israel goes into ‘travail’ in the summer of 2020, I would expect to be in God’s presence sometime between the Feast of Trumpets and the Day of Atonement, 2020.
11. The ‘Mighty Angel’ (Christ) announces ‘there will be no more delay’. (Revelation 10:5,6) The ‘delay’ is because the ‘priesthood’ is not in the throne room, interceding for the saints before the golden altar of incense. Christ can take the scroll from His Father and begin to rule only when He is ‘relieved’ by the next division of priests who have received authority to act on His behalf. Once the Elders are in heaven, the rest of the events will follow rapidly from one event to another.
12. The rapture of the ‘child’/24 Elders will be preceded by several events which must happen in very quick succession: the ‘travail’ of Israel, Satan’s angels cast to the earth, the resurrection of the dead and the ‘change’ of the living. If the 9th of Av begins the ‘travail’ of Israel, 60 days later on the Day of Atonement will be the ‘catching up’ of the ‘child’.
13. The Day of Atonement was the one day when the High Priest could enter the Holy of Holies in the earthly temple. God’s throne room is the real ‘Holy of Holies’, of which the earthly temple was only a shadow. It is fitting that the 24 Elders—priest/kings—enter the Heavenly Holy of Holies on the Day of Atonement.
14. Five days later will be the Feast of Tabernacles; the time when the first fruits of the fall crops are offered to God. The 144K are described as ‘first fruits to God’ in Revelation 14:4. The ‘olive tree’ represents spiritual Israel. (Romans 11:24) Since olives are offered as first fruits during the Feast of Tabernacles, the 144K of Israel will be the ‘first fruits’ of the ‘olive’ harvest. The 144K will be sealed/offered to God in the fall, at the Feast of Tabernacles, immediately after the rapture of the ‘child’/Elders, to complete the ‘Elijah/Elisha’ type.
15. The main reason for the rapture of the ‘child’/24 Elders is not to escape the wrath of God or the rule of the Beast, but to assist Christ in His High Priestly duties so that He can begin to rule and reign.

Timelines for the Spiritual 'Opposition'

Timelines for the Spiritual 'Opposition' (Part 2)

Satan (the 'Dragon'), his angels, Apollyon (and those coming up from the pit, ie: 'the Watchers'), demons, the Harlot/Mystery Babylon and the Beasts of Revelation

The Last Half of the Seven Years 2021-2024

Explanation of the Timeline for the Spiritual Opposition

1. Satan is the primary enemy of God, and by extension the people of God. Just as God has been working out His plan for the salvation of mankind since before Adam and Eve ever sinned in the Garden of Eden; Satan has had a plan as well, one that he, too, has been working since before the corruption of our first parents.
2. One of the consequences of the fall of man, was that Satan was able to wrest control of the earth from Adam, and in the process Satan became the 'lord of the earth'. His lordship means that he has power over God's highest creation—man.
3. Satan, as the prince of this world, seeks to maintain his control over both mankind, and the earth on which man dwells.
4. Satan uses men to further his plans; sometimes as witting agents, but mostly unwitting, in an effort to maintain control over his domain.
5. Christ's death on the cross and subsequent resurrection, spelled the 'beginning of the end' of Satan's rule over all mankind, and over the earth as well.
6. Those who receive Christ as their Savior, are no longer subject to Satan's lordship; and the consequence of sin—eternal separation from God—has been paid through the death of Christ.
7. Though Satan has lost control over believers—people who belong to Christ—he still seeks to rule over the earth and the rest of lost humanity.
8. During the last days, the conflict between light and darkness—between the kingdom of Christ and the prince of this world—will come to a head. At that time, God will methodically tear down Satan's kingdom and bring his reign to an end, including the eternal banishment of Satan's presence from heaven, the rescue of believers from the earth, and the judgment of the Antichrist/False Prophet and the Beast kingdom.
9. Satan will attempt to preemptively 'check mate' God's end time plan, by casting a third of his angels to the earth, keeping two-thirds in heaven. Satan knows that he will need to be able to fight on two fronts: one war in heaven, and one on the earth. The war in heaven will be the more dangerous of the two wars for Satan, with Michael leading the hosts of heaven against Satan and his army. Two days before the midpoint, precisely at the feast of First Fruits, Michael and the armies of heaven will succeed in removing Satan's presence from heaven, forever. Satan, along with his angels, will be banished to the earth.
10. About six months before Satan is cast out of heaven, he will come against the believers on earth—specifically the 'child' who is about to be raptured—those who will be "caught up to God and to His throne" in heaven. Israel, represented by the 'woman' of Revelation 12, is pictured as being in 'travail', which, symbolically represents a war or invasion. Satan, who is represented by the 'dragon', will stand before the 'woman', Israel, during her 'travail'. At this point in time, his goal is not the destruction of the woman/Israel, but the devouring of the 'child' after it is 'born'.
11. Satan's one-third angelic forces who are now present on earth, will no doubt assist him in attempting to prevent the rapture of the child.
12. The child—believers—will have been 'born'—transformed into their glorified bodies—before they will be caught up to God's presence. Once they are in the heavenly throne room, they are depicted as 24 Elders—priests and kings. As members of the heavenly priesthood, they have authority to intercede before the throne of God for the new believers on earth. Once the Elders are in heaven and praying before the altar, Christ may, at that time, leave the altar of intercession to take the scroll from His Father and, upon so doing, begin to mete out God's judgments on His enemies—Satan included.

13. Once the child is in heaven, Satan will also return to heaven from the earth, in order to accuse the new believers on earth (144K and new Gentile Christians), before the throne of God.
14. Not long after the child is in heaven, the 144,000 of Israel plus multitudes of saved Gentiles will be sealed and baptized in the Holy Spirit. This revival will be followed by the first 4 Seal and first 4 Trumpet events, and the 5th Trumpet sounding thus opening the Pit/Abyss, and the release of the fallen angels (the Watchers) and their king, Apollyon, to invade the earth.
15. These angels are depicted as an army of locusts, who have the sting of scorpions. They are allowed to torture anyone who does not have the seal of God—anyone who is not a believer filled with the Holy Spirit. The torture will be unbearable and men will wish to die, but death will elude them. Christ, who holds the keys to death and Hades, will not permit those who are stung to die. They will be given a taste of the hopelessness that will come to those who take the mark of the Beast and, as a result, suffer eternal punishment in the Lake of Fire. For many, the torture that they will be subjected to during the five months will result in their salvation,
16. Any of those who are stung will have the opportunity of receiving Christ and being sealed with the Spirit. If they turn to Christ in faith, they will be healed. (The story of the ‘fiery serpents’ in the book of Numbers, is a type of the ‘sting of rebellion’, and gazing at the brazen serpent on a pole is a type of the spiritual healing that will come to those who look to Christ, who was crucified for them.)
17. Rather than being an instrument of Satan, God will turn the sting of the locust army into the instrument whereby salvation will come to millions of people. This will result in another wave of revival on earth.
18. Satan will then use his agent, the Harlot—including false Christianity—to persecute believers. Operating in conjunction with the Scarlet Beast (the 7th King) and the earth dwellers—people whose hearts and affections are set on things of this world—millions of believers will be imprisoned and martyred for their testimony in a 10 day ‘orgy’ of bloodshed.
19. While believers are being persecuted on earth, Michael and his angels will be warring with Satan and his angels in heaven. At the end of 10 days, both the war in heaven and the persecution taking place on earth, will be over. Satan will be cast to the earth, and the martyrs will be present in heaven, in their glorified, resurrected bodies.
20. Before the end of the 10 days, the Scarlet Beast (7th King) will make an attempt on the lives of the Two Witnesses. This attempt will backfire, and the Two Witnesses will kill the Beast. This will take place on Passover.
21. The Beast will resurrect two days later, on First Fruits. Apollyon, the king of the angels of the Abyss, will take up residence inside the resurrected Beast, changing him into the ‘Beast who ascends from the bottomless Pit’. This resurrected ‘seed of the serpent’ is also known as the ‘Beast from the Sea’, the ‘8th King’, and ‘the Antichrist’. He will receive the dragon’s power, throne and very great authority. (At this point, all those martyred by the Harlot will be in heaven in their resurrection bodies. The 144K of Israel are also in heaven, having been raptured. These two groups of ‘priests’ join the 24 Elders already present in heaven.)
22. The feast of First Fruits in 2021 will bring the 1260 day ministry of the Two Witnesses to an end. As of this day, they will no longer be invincible. The newly resurrected and satanically empowered Beast will kill the Two Witnesses as one of his first acts. The bodies of the Two Witnesses will lie unburied in the streets of Jerusalem.
23. With the death of the Two Witnesses, the earth dwellers will have cause to celebrate and hail the resurrected Beast as their king and messiah.
24. Three and a half days later, the Two Witnesses will resurrect, and be called up into heaven. This will coincide with the ‘abomination of desolation’: the Beast taking his seat in the temple of God, declaring that he, himself is God. At that same hour, the Two Witnesses ascend, and a great earthquake will split the Mount of Olives. Christ Himself, will appear in a cloud of glory and lead the remnant of Israel into the wilderness. Satan’s army will follow the remnant in an attempt to prevent their escape. As the army pursues the remnant through the newly created valley in the Mount of Olives, the mountain will close back up, 'swallowing' the army of the dragon.

25. Meanwhile, the Beast (and 10 Kings who have given their power to him), will destroy the Harlot—the current reigning world religious system. They will accomplish this in one hour on a single day, with fire, smoke and sulphur. Anyone associated with the Harlot will die, even believers who took 'refuge' in her. One third of the earth will perish in the judgment of the Harlot.
26. Once the destruction of the Harlot is complete at the midpoint/6th Trumpet, God will sound one last warning to those on earth before the reign of the Beast begins. Three 'gospel' angels will plead with people to worship God, the Creator; they will inform the world that Babylon...the Harlot...has 'fallen'; and tell them not to take the mark of the Beast.
27. Anyone who takes the mark or worships the Beast or the image of the Beast will be thrown into the Lake of Fire, to suffer in the presence of God and the Holy Angels, forever and ever.
28. Unlike the martyrs of the Harlot, any believer who dies from this point on, must wait until the return of Christ to be resurrected. Those who are not killed by the Beast during his reign, must remain faithful to the Lord who will come get them in a rapture event before the wrath of God is poured out on the Beast and the Beast kingdom.
29. The Beast, the False Prophet and the Dragon will establish their version of the Millennium over the next 42 months, dwelling in 'peace and safety', with no opposition from God or God's people who may still be alive on the earth.
30. On an unknown day, the few believers remaining on earth will be taken to heaven by the Lord who will come for them on a cloud. Once these believers are safely in heaven, the wrath of God will begin to fall on the earth. The kings of the earth will be lured to Armageddon to war against Christ. They will be defeated, and the Beast and the False Prophet will be thrown alive into the Lake of Fire. Satan will be bound and thrown into the Pit for a thousand years.
31. The remnant of Israel will return to Jerusalem, and the martyrs of the Beast will be resurrected to join their brethren in heaven.
32. Christ will establish His Millennial kingdom on earth. Believers will live in the New Jerusalem in heaven, minister to God as priests in His temple, and also assist Christ in His earthly rule.
33. At the end of the thousand years, Satan will be released from the pit, and gather to himself a large group of disgruntled people, creating yet another rebellion against the rule of God. This rebellion will be crushed and Satan will be cast into the Lake of Fire.
34. All the remaining dead will then be resurrected at the Great White Throne judgment. The righteous will go on to live on the New Earth. The wicked will be cast into the Lake of Fire, along with Satan.
35. The New Jerusalem will come to earth and God will dwell with man, forever.

Explanation of the Timeline for the Witnesses, 144K, and Temple

1. Once the (first) rapture of present day believers—that of the ‘child’—has taken place, the ‘baton’ will be passed to the new believers on earth whose job it will be to share the Gospel. The 144,000 of the 12 tribes of Israel who are to be ‘sealed’ at the Feast of Tabernacles, will be tasked with sharing the good news of salvation. New Gentile converts will join them and be filled with the Spirit on the 8th day of Tabernacles. The Two Witnesses will give accurate ‘testimony’ to the Savior as well.
2. The 144,000 (144K) of Israel are a special group of believers. They are mentioned by name in Revelation 7 and 14. They will be the very first group of people to believe in Christ after the rapture of the ‘child’. They are called ‘first fruits to God and to the Lamb’. This indicates they will have a special status similar to that of the 12 disciples. Both groups (the 12 disciples/apostles and the 144K) ‘follow’ the Lord. They both are the first of Israel to come to Christ, in two different dispensations.
3. The 144K will be ‘sealed’ by the Lord, who appears as the Angel of the Lord in Revelation 7. The seal is the gift of the Holy Spirit, whose presence in the life of the Christian guarantees them a place in heaven and power over the enemy.
4. We are told that the 144K are ‘redeemed’ from the earth, which alludes to the Old Testament requirement of purchasing the redemption of the first born male, who was to be dedicated to God.
5. The ‘first born’ was promised a ‘double portion’ of the inheritance (the birthright), provided they didn’t disqualify themselves through immorality (as did Reuben, Jacob’s oldest son) or by spurning it (as did Esau, who sold his birthright to his brother, Jacob). The double portion in the end times is signified by a ‘double filling’ of the Holy Spirit, which will take place at the Feast of Tabernacles (first day and 8th day), and a position of preeminence in God’s kingdom, similar to the 12 Apostles.
6. The seal on the foreheads of these ‘servants of God’ is replaced by ‘writing’ on their foreheads after they arrive in heaven in Revelation 14. This indicates that the promise of eternal life—the promise which the seal of the Spirit guaranteed—has been fulfilled.
7. The believers of the church of Philadelphia (“Brotherly Love”) have the same writing on their foreheads. In addition, they are told that the Jews who reviled them will ultimately bow down before them. This seems to indicate that the letter to the church of Philadelphia was written specifically to the 144K. This, then, is the group who will be kept from the ‘hour of trial’. (The ‘hour of trial’ refers to the hour that the Harlot is destroyed at the 6th Trumpet/2nd Woe.) The 144K will be taken in their own rapture sometime before the midpoint, most likely on the Feast of First Fruits, 3/30/21. (The letters to the seven churches are written to the 144K of Israel, the first who will come to faith in Christ after the rapture of the child.)
8. Those of Israel who are chosen to be a part of the 144K, but who, through spiritual immorality disqualify themselves from the birthright, will not be taken in the rapture promised to the 144K. However, if they then will persevere through the reign of the Beast without taking the mark, worshiping the Beast or its image, they will be taken in the ‘secret rapture’, which will take place just prior to the Bowl Judgments/Day of the Lord/wrath of God.
9. The exhortations in the letters to the churches are directed to the 144K in particular.
10. The Two Witnesses are identified as Moses and Elijah. They have a specified length of ministry, spanning exactly 1260 days. During that period of time they will be invincible and have the power to destroy any who come against them.
11. At the resurrection/‘change’ of believers, Christ (the Mighty Angel of Revelation 10) will also deliver a ‘little scroll’, the decree from God to rebuild His temple in Jerusalem. One aspect of the ministry of the Two Witnesses will consist of rebuilding the Temple, following the 'type' of Zerubbabel and Joshua the High Priest in Zechariah 4. They will encounter opposition to their temple rebuilding efforts but the opposition will be rebuffed and the temple will be completed by Hanukkah, 2020. The 144K will worship in the newly rebuilt temple.

12. The Two Witnesses will lead many of Israel in repentance toward God, using the rebuilt Temple as an 'object lesson' of the Person and work of Christ.
13. The ministry of the Two Witnesses (specifically the ministry of calling people to repentance) will have begun shortly after the Revelation 12 Sign. These two powerful men must be present on the earth at the time of the resurrection/change of believers, which could have taken place after the Great Sign/Feast of Trumpets in 2017. The Two Witnesses must be present on earth in order to receive the little scroll authorizing them to begin rebuilding the Temple. The public ministry of the Two Witnesses will not begin until they have the decree from God, at which time they will undertake the construction of the Temple.
14. The visible, active presence of the Two Witnesses is not a 'sign' for believers that the 'end' is near. The visible, public ministry of the Two Witnesses will over-lap the witness of present day believers by 10 days: from the Feast of Trumpets to the Day of Atonement, at which time the rapture of the 'child' will take place, and the 'baton' of ministry will be passed to the 144K.
15. The Temple will be completed by Hanukkah, "2300 evenings and mornings" (or 1150 days) from the time the Two Witnesses began their ministry on October 17, 2017.
16. Animosity toward the Two Witnesses on the part of the earth dwellers will be evident once the rapture takes place, as well as during the construction of the Temple. The Jews in Israel may not accept the Temple built by the Two Witnesses, though the antichrist/Beast WILL recognize it as God's temple at the time of the abomination of desolation at the midpoint.
17. The Scarlet Beast—the 7th King—will come against the Two Witnesses, who will proceed to kill the Beast on Passover. This will be during the ten day persecution of believers at the hands of the earth dwellers encouraged by false religion, as personified by the Harlot. The Scarlet Beast will be killed in a personal conflict between the Two Witnesses, and die.
18. Two days later, the Beast will resurrect into the person we know as the Antichrist or the 'Beast from the Sea/bottomless Pit'. He will imitate the resurrection of Christ on the feast of First Fruits. The newly resurrected '8th King' will be the host body for Apollyon, the 'seed of the serpent', and receive power from his 'father', Satan, who will have been cast to the earth from heaven on the Feast of First Fruits.
19. One of the Beast's first acts upon being raised from the dead, will be to kill the Two Witnesses, which will also take place on First Fruits. This will be the final day of the 10 day persecution of believers, and all who were martyred in the purge will be in heaven in glorified bodies. The 144K of Israel—the first fruits of Israel—will be taken to heaven on that day as well.
20. The bodies of the Two Witnesses will lie in the streets of Jerusalem for 3.5 days. The people on earth who had been tormented by the plagues of the Two Witnesses, who will have also seen the Beast rise from the dead, will follow the Beast, and celebrate his victory over God's people and the Two Witnesses. Gift giving and general merriment will be the order of the day. They will also bestow their worship on the Beast and Satan.
21. The Two Witnesses will resurrect and ascend into heaven 3.5 days after their death, on the same day that the Beast defiles the rebuilt Temple at the midpoint.
